

JPB ACCOUNTING SERVICES ANNOUNCES LAUNCH OF WWW.JPBAS.COM

Columbia, Maryland...JPB Accounting Services, LLC (“JPBAS”), has recently launched its newly designed website: www.jpbas.com . JPBAS is the premier provider of outsourced accounting and financial management services in the Baltimore-Washington corridor.

Fred Shaw, President of JPBAS is excited about the launch of the new website. “Strong financial management is invaluable for business owners who are encountering new hurdles in their day-to-day operations. With today’s challenging market, we want to help them see the benefits of outsourced accounting services and how outsourcing can help reduce expenses while achieving best practices.” Additionally, Shaw believes that “the new website will help others to understand how easily our services can help them with their various business needs from general bookkeeping to higher level controllership and CFO services.”

Since 1995, the company have been providing professional accounting and business consulting services in the Baltimore-Washington corridor. JPBAS is a JPB Enterprises powered company.
